

<MUSE: Here is the text for the Hyman supplement. >

This presidential address was delivered in 2018, which represents the fiftieth anniversary of Larry Hyman's joining the Linguistic Society of America in 1968 as an undergraduate at UCLA. The letter of acknowledgment and welcome he received from then secretary-treasurer Archibald A. Hill is posted here.

94.3.hyman01_letter.pdf

[Download PDF file] What tone teaches us about language. Online supplementary materials: Letter of welcome upon Hyman's joining the LSA in 1968