Note: The gap in turnout (participation ratio) is calculated by dividing the predicted probability of active Protestants versus non-active Catholics.