

Supplemental Figure 4. Immunohistochemistry of pSTAT3 Tyr 705. The assay was conducted using colon tissue sections from mice with chronic colitis. Quantification of DAB labeling was determined by staining intensity (A), % of stained area in the mucosa (B), and discrete stained areas (C). Bars labeled with different letters indicate a significant difference ($p < 0.05$) between means. Representative staining is shown in panel (D).