3 States that have adopted both administrative and violent crackdown

States that adopt barriers to foreign funding for NGOs and violently attacked NGOs frequently (above 90 percentile) in the same year: Cuba, Venezuela, Bolivia, Moldova, Russia, Belarus, Gambia, Burkina Faso, Gabon, Ethiopia, Zimbabwe, Bahrain, North Korea, Myanmar, Thailand, Singapore, India (post-2010), Tunisia (Pre-Revolution)

States that impose barriers to political activities by NGOs and violently attacked NGOs frequently (above 90 percentile) in the same year: New Zealand, Australia, Malaysia, Vietnam, Cambodia, Myanmar, North Korea, Afghanistan, Bahrain, Kuwait, Jordan, Syria, Turkey, Sudan, Libya, Algeria, Morocco, Swaziland, Zimbabwe, Mozambique, Angola, Ethiopia, Kenya, Uganda, Gabon, Burkina Faso, Niger, Belarus, Moldova, Ireland, Czech Republic, Bolivia, Peru, Venezuela, Colombia, Honduras, Cuba

4 Coding Rules - Administrative Crackdown

Table 1: Coding Rules - Administrative Crackdown

Barriers to Entry for NGOs
Are NGOs required to register with the government?	Yes (1); No (0)
Is NGO registration burdensome? Yes if characterized by vague or onerous procedures and often subject to delay	Yes (1); No (0)
Can NGOs appeal if denied registration?	Yes (1); No (0)
Are barriers to entry different for NGOs receiving foreign funding?	Less burdensome (-1); Same (0); More burdensome (1)
Barriers to Funding for NGOs
Do NGOs have to disclose funding sources to government?	Yes (1); No (0)
Do NGOs need prior approval from govt. to receive foreign funding?	Yes (1); No (0)
Are NGOs reqd. to channel foreign funding through state-owned banks or government ministries?	Yes (1); No (0)
Are any additional restrictions on foreign support in place? If so, detail.	Yes (1); No (0)
Are all NGOs prohibited from receiving foreign funds?	No (0); Up to a certain threshold (1); Yes (2)
Are a category of NGOs prohibited from receiving foreign funds?	No (0); Up to a certain threshold (1); Yes (2)
Barriers to Advocacy for NGOs
Are NGOs restricted from engaging in political activities?	Yes (1); No (0)
Are restrictions on political activities different for NGOs receiving foreign funds?	Less restrictive (-1); Same (0); More restrictive (1)
