

Figure S1. Aerial view (right) and ground view (left) of the experiment after cover crop termination, rolling, and cotton planting. Cotton is at 4-6 leaves at time of photo.

Figure S2. Planting cotton into established 25 cm vegetation-free strips that were killed with a banded herbicide application prior to planting.