

Directions: Some of the sentences below have problems. Please read through the sentences. Correct any problems that you find in the sentences. Tick (✓) a box if the sentence does not need correcting.

Check if the sentence does not need correcting.

1. I was interesting in the project the team was doing, so I decided to join the team.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
2. Yesterday I see my friend in front of the computer lab.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
3. He was elect to be the chair of the board.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
4. I enjoy to listen to music.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
5. I got an email from the library that the book I had checked out should returned in 3 days.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
6. The teacher was exciting about the news that he passed the test.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
7. He was so angry that he yelled to me.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
8. It took more than an hour to fix the computer.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
9. I thought I would be the first person in the list, but my name called last.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
10. He goes often to the book store to read fashion magazines.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
11. He was disappointing to hear that his dad cannot attend the graduation ceremony.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
12. We decided to move on because the plan could not be delay any longer.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
13. My brother is 10 years older then I am.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
14. The core aim of the course is to develop a theory.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
15. The package will delivered to the new address.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
16. He sent applications to many colleges but he was accept to only one of them.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
17. He will remembered as the best skater for a long time.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting

Directions: Some of the sentences below have problems. Please read through the sentences. Correct any problems that you find in the sentences. Tick (✓) a box if the sentence does not need correcting.

Check if the sentence does not need correcting.

1. My father was very pleasing with the result I got on the math test.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
2. Since 1992, the school accepts more than 100 international students every year.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
3. John was recommend to be the director of the international committee.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
4. I was asked to participate in the campaign but I refused.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
5. The late fee must paid in cash. They don't accept a credit card.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
6. Tom did a great job last night. I was impressing by his performance.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
7. The company created new positions last year.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
8. The book was translate from English to Russian.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
9. The letter sent to the department along with the other materials requested.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
10. I check frequently my website to read new postings.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
11. When I went to the restaurant last time, I was satisfying with the service.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
12. The form should be sign by the academic supervisor and the dean.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
13. Somebody called the police and the thief arrested.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
14. When you get to the place, you will asked to present your ID card.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
15. He is the most young player in his team.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
16. My dad found out that I had lied to him. He was really angry to me.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting
17. We need three more chair in the conference room.	<input type="checkbox"/> No correcting

Rubric for Scoring Idea Units

Participant _____ Rater: _____ Total score: _____

1. _____ Pilot Detained After No-Smoking Siege
 2. _____ MILAN Monday July 27 Reuters
 3. _____ One hundred eight passengers (no number)
 4. _____ aboard a commercial airliner *on a plane= full credit
 5. _____ were held by a British pilot
 6. _____ for 40 minutes
 7. _____ after landing in Milan. (Italy)
 8. _____ According to the Italian police,
 9. _____ the pilot held the passengers because no one would admit to being the person who broke the strict no-smoking rules.
 10. _____ Sue Harrison, (a source) (one woman)
 11. _____ a spokeswoman for Go,
 12. _____ the new low-cost carrier that is part of British Airways Plc,
 13. _____ said the incident happened on Sunday afternoon
 14. _____ after a flight from Stansted (London = full credit)
 15. _____ to Milan's Malpensa airport. (reverse order- 1/2 pt. each)
 16. _____ She said that one passenger had blocked the smoke detector (broken)
 17. _____ in one of the plane's toilets "cover up" OK
 18. _____ and had smoked a cigarette *someone smoked=full credit
 19. _____ in violation of Go's no-smoking rules and strict safety standards.
 20. _____ This was brought to a flight attendant's attention
 21. _____ by a passenger
 22. _____ who complained about the cigarette smell (didn't mention smell)
 23. _____ in the toilet.
 24. _____ The flight attendant checked the toilet (police)
 25. _____ and found that the smoke detector was blocked.
 26. _____ passengers are allowed to smoke in restricted areas on international flights; (at the airport) (didn't mention restricted area)
 27. _____ however, they are prohibited from smoking on all domestic flights, (carrying cigarettes)
 28. _____ according to the spokeswoman for Go.
 29. _____ The same rules are imposed by most major airlines.
 30. _____ On arrival,
 31. _____ a 57-year-old pilot
 32. _____ with 28 years experience, (very experienced)
 33. _____ captain Bryan Bliss (police) *name not necessary *"pilot" OK
 34. _____ asked the culprit to own up.
 35. _____ No one came forward,
 36. _____ and finally, everyone was let go.
 37. _____ after 40 minutes
 38. _____ Then, the pilot was detained by police (he-not clear who)
 39. _____ at the airport * taken away=full credit
 40. _____ for holding passengers against their will, (for his behavior)
 41. _____ Harrison said. "He wasn't arrested. (captured=full credit) (the smoker= 1/2 credit)
 42. _____ He was detained.
 43. _____ He helped answer their questions,"
 44. _____ she said by telephone
 45. _____ from London.
 46. _____ She added, "We were informed of the situation
 47. _____ immediately;
 48. _____ however, we were asked not to release the details of the situation
 49. _____ until the investigation is finished."
 50. _____ She did not know how long the questioning lasted
 51. _____ but said Bliss was allowed to go
 52. _____ and was permitted to fly the plane
 53. _____ back from Malpensa (wrong direction 1/2 each)
 54. _____ to Stansted
 55. _____ later in the day. (in a short time)
 56. _____ "We are continuing to talk to the police _____ to make sure all questions are answered,"
 57. _____ Harrison said.
 58. _____ "We won't compromise on safety." (didn't say who said it 1/2)
 59. _____ She said there was no likelihood of any legal action
 60. _____ against Bliss
 61. _____ and said both sides were being "very helpful."
 62. _____ Police at Malpensa declined to comment
 63. _____ while the case is considered unresolved.
- * 1/2 point for mentioning: airplane, Milan, London, flight attendant, pilot, police, smoking, etc. If they don't get any of the points.