This appendix documents the additional data sources I consulted while researching and writing “Partisan Power Play: The Origins of Local Election Timing as an American Political Institution,” published in Studies in American Political Development in 2012.

San Francisco and California

California Election Returns:

The JoinCalifornia site of the One Voter Project, compiled by Alex Vassar and Shane Meyers, has information on all state and national elections held in California since 1849. Prior to 1898, for state legislative offices, only the names and political parties of winning candidates are provided, but statewide election returns as well as full candidate and party information are available for all statewide offices. The JoinCalifornia information is available online at <http://www.joincalifornia.com/>.
