

Figure S1. Water content of cryptogams along transects away from penguin colonies and in relation to altitude on Signy Island. The different study sites are depicted by shape and colour of the data points (mean of n = 3), error bars are SE.

