

SUPPLEMENTAL COLOR FIGURES

Supplemental Figure 1. View of the central zone of the archaeological site next to the village of Raqchi. The central wall of the Inka “temple” and “Yanacancha” sector (R1) is shown in the foreground with the enclosure of circular structures (R3) including a line of restored buildings in the background.

Supplemental Figure 2. Ocros style straight sided flaring bowl in C12 fabric found within an ash deposit (context 13) of Colca 12B.