

Supplemental Figure 4. Venn diagram of likely relationship between the boundaries of exchange networks and political units. Teonadepa and El Nogal are apparently in different obsidian exchange networks, with minimal access to the Selene source at El Nogal. The other small circles represent unnamed equivalent political units. The other large ovals represent other potential exchange spheres.