

Online Appendix A

Interview questions:

- 1) How many ETDP are offered at your department?
- 2) Do they attract mostly Polish or international students?
- 3) How many faculty members are involved in teaching for ETDP?
- 4) Does your university have a strategy of internationalization?
- 5) Can you see any impact of internationalization of teaching on internationalization of research at your institution?
- 6) If yes, what is the impact? Please provide concrete examples.
- 7) Do faculty members involved in coordinating ETDPs and/or teaching for these programs benefit from this experience? If yes, please provide examples.
- 8) Has the number of international projects and international publications in Political Science increased in recent years at your department and especially among faculty teaching for ETDPs?
- 9) Are faculty members involved in teaching for ETDP at your department more likely to expand their research potential and international visibility than those who do not have such experience?