A The value of wealth under TU per capita and DAU

Figure A1: Inclusive wealth under TU per capita (dashed line) and under DAU (solid line), 1990-2008. Based on IWR 2012 and the author's calculation.

B Changes in the value of wealth under TU, TU per capita, and DAU

Figures A2 and A3 present the change rates in the value of wealth under TU, TU per capita, and under DAU.

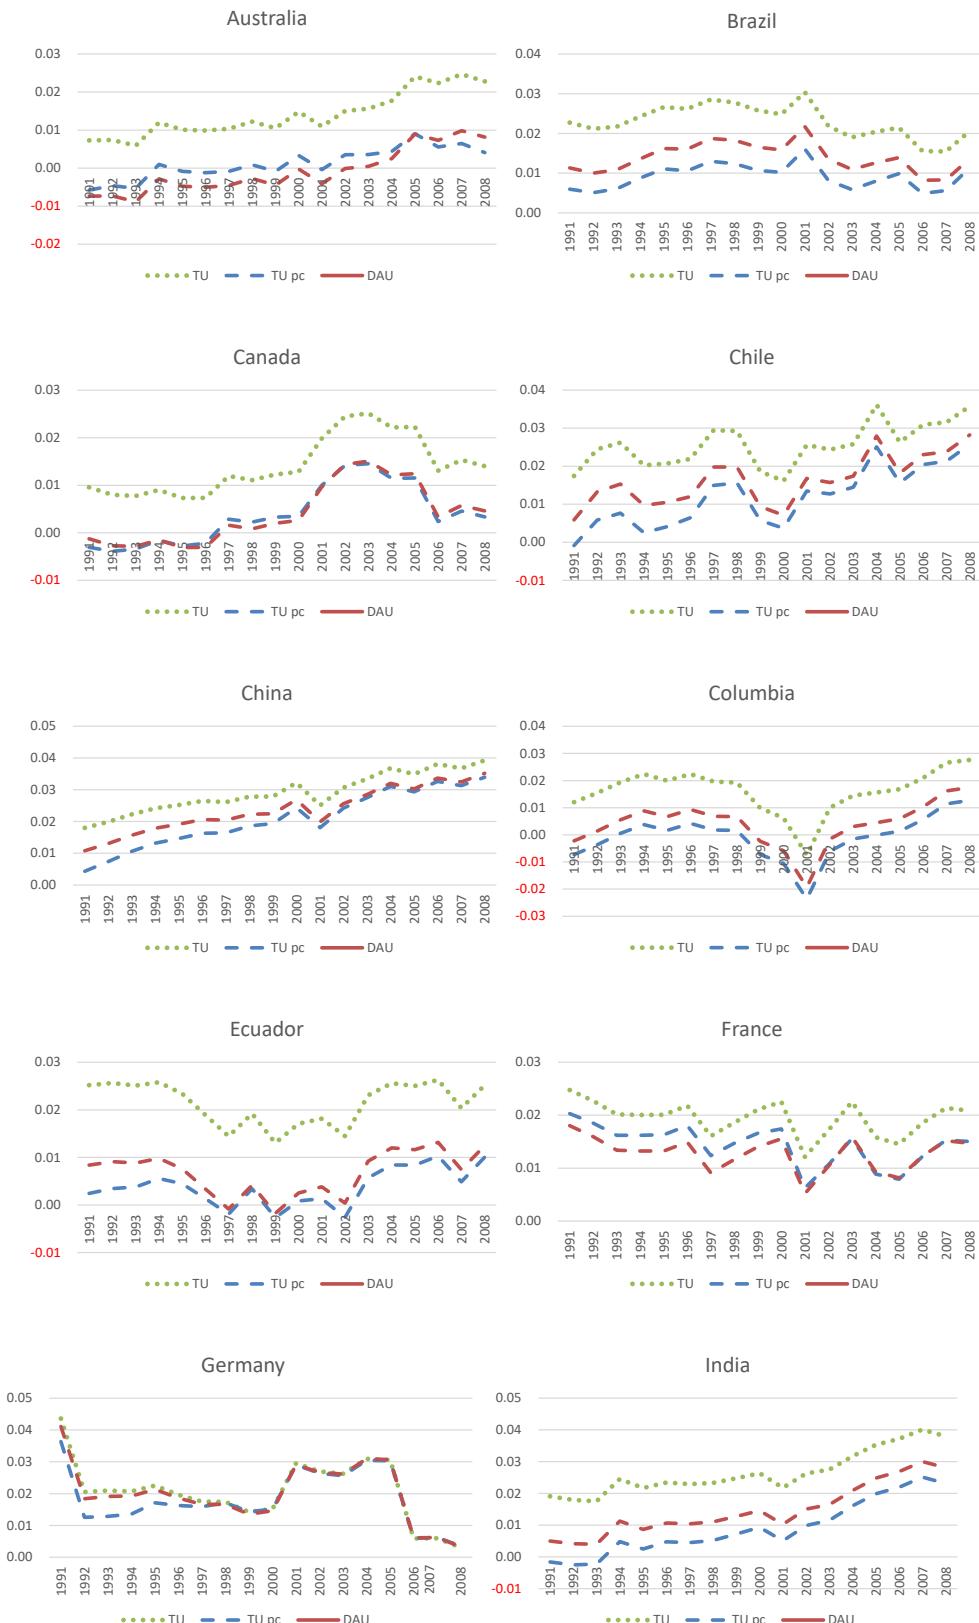

Figure A2: The change rates in the values of wealth under TU (dotted line), under TU per capita (dashed line), and under DAU (solid line), 1991-2008. Based on IWR 2012 and the author's calculation.

C Estimates of population growth functions

In subsection 3.3, we did an exercise on the value of population, which involves a forward-looking term. In particular, we assumed that the logistical population growth is of the form $v(N)N = -AN^2 + A\bar{N}N$. The estimated coefficients were based on the population dataset from United Nations Population Division (2013) in table A1.
